

LELAND A. LILLEHAUG PRESIDENT'S AWARD

President Donald Hardisty initiated the President's Award in 1986. The award was established to recognize individuals, who according to the President, have significantly contributed to the success of the organization. The President selects the recipients. In 1996, President Ronald Keller presented and renamed the award in honor of Leland A. Lillehaug.

HERBERT L. & JEAN SCHULTZ MENTOR IDEAL AWARD

This award was the idea of Dr. Herbert L. Schultz (ACB President 1984-85) who felt a need to recognize exceptional teachers who have inspired their students to achieve success as outstanding concert band musicians. The catalyst for this award was the first recipient Ernest S. Williams.

The candidate's qualifications shall show a pattern of teaching success over several years, doing the ground level work influencing our music students. Candidate's resume should include several written recommendations from former students and/or colleagues. Candidates need not be members of ACB, and more than one award may be presented in any one year

Nominations may be received from any source and at any time. Nomination process is on the ACB Web Site.

ALLEN E. BECK LEADERSHIP AWARD

Created in memory of Allen E. Beck (ACB President 2005-2007), this award is given to those who showed exceptional Leadership within ACB. This prestigious award requires approval of the ACB Board. This new award was established and announced May 2017.

Nomination process is on the ACB Web Site.

YOUNG COMPOSERS COMPOSITION CONTEST

The Association of Concert Bands Young Composers Composition Contest is held bi-annually. Composers must be under age 30 but are not required to be a member of ACB. See contest details on ACB Web Site.
